Anna L. Mock

OCT 10, 1927 - JUN 6, 2013

A nna L. Mock October 10, 1927 – June 6, 2013

With the very dignity and grace she displayed throughout her life, Anna L. Mock age 85 peacefully passed away on Thursday, June 6, 2013, in South Bend, Indiana. Born in Brunswick, Maryland, Anna was a longtime resident of Leesburg, Virginia, until moving to South Bend, Indiana in 2010, where she quickly and comfortably made Indiana her second home. Her final journey will see her return back home to Leesburg, where she will be reunited with her beloved husband of 59 years, Richard, who predeceased her in 2006.

Anna, born the fourth and youngest daughter of Thomas and Anna Longbrake, was predeceased by her three elder sisters Frances, Gertrude, and Grace. A wonderful and loving wife, Anna was a mother of two, son Richard (Peggy) Mock of South Bend, Indiana, and daughter Anne (Daniel) Fox of Leesburg, a grandmother of six, Stephanie (Mike) Jackson, Benjamin (Lauren) Fox, Emily Mock, Sarah Fox, and Marshall and Spencer Mock, and a great grandmother of three, Ambrielle, Timothy, and Leah Jackson, all of whom survive her.

Anna graduated from Brunswick High School and secretarial school. Her first full time job was as an administrative assistant at the United States Commerce Department in Washington, D.C., where she became an expert in the now lost art of shorthand.

On July 12, 1947 Anna married her high school sweetheart, Richard, starting their lives together at age nineteen, marrying just one day before his twentieth birthday. Their love for each other stood the test of time. She later became a full-time mother and always made a beautiful home for her family.

Anna had an infectious laugh and a great sense of humor. She was a great audience, when anyone would tell a joke, good or bad; they could always count on at least one laugh in the room with Anna. She was a warm and caring person who had many friends. Anna had a variety of interests over her lifetime: singing in the church choir, playing piano and organ, and she enjoyed listening to many types of music. Anna loved to watch sports. She and Richard were longtime Washington Redskin season ticket holders. Anna loved to travel, with Bermuda and Hawaii being two of her favorite destinations. Anna loved fashion, clothes, shoes, and jewelry were her favorites, and she wore them well. Anna was always “dressed to the nines”. A memorial service will be held to celebrate her life on Saturday July 13, 2013 at 1:00PM at the Loudoun Funeral Chapel in Leesburg. Anna’s family would be honored if you can attend. Anna was loved by all who knew her, and she will be sorely missed. Anna’s last request for family, friends, or anyone reading about her life for the first time was that you offer some act of kindness to someone on her behalf.

I am saddened to learn of Anna's passing. My memories of her will remain with me. She was truly one of the sweetest people. I worked alongside of her while working with Loudoun County Area Agency on Aging. She was an energetic, cheerful and as friendly as anyone could be. Her smile stayed in a room long after she left it. All who knew her have had their lives enriched.R. Ricci

I truly treasure the time that I got to spend with my dear friend Anna Mock. We spent 5 afternoons a week for 2 and a half years just enjoying each other's company. Our conversations were very interesting. She loved to tell me about her romance with Richard and how it started because she allowed him to tutor her in Math. She'd say "He always brought his brother along to make it look respectable". She loved to look at pictures and tell me all about her family's vacations to Wildwood NJ and how she burned very easily in the Sun. She loved to talk about her upbringing in Brunswick MD. One day I surprised her and we took a drive to Brunswick and we found her old house and old church which had been turned into a cafe. We had lunch there and as we ate we discovered some old church logs and journals in the window sill. We read and found her sister's names in them. It was such an amazing trip down memory lane for her. We would make our regular trips to Roy Rogers. That woman could eat a plain cheeseburger and fries like a teenager and never gain any weight. She shared a lot of personal and some painful things with me that we prayed about together. I felt that God brought us together at that time in our lives because we needed each other. She was also an amazing listener. She told me I was like a daughter to her. When she relocated to Indiana there was a hole left in my heart. I am thrilled to know that you and Richard are finally reunited in God's heaven and I will see you again there Ms Anna. Much love,
