Lance, You were my angel in really life and the after. You did everything you ever could just to make me happy.You always put yourself before others, and that i think is so sweet and true. I think about you everyday, always wishing i could hug you one last time. I dreamed of you twice. Once is when you said goodbye to me, i woke up crying. I refuse to believe that you are gone. But i know you are deep inside. I cant wait to see you again and give you a big hug. I will prey to you till you the day i die.

Lance,Shew..he wasn't just a friendHe was my brother, everyday at my house doing some crazy or stupid. Like setting his leg hair on fire, or attempting to blow up my mailbox. I remember this one time, I staped on a razor (don't keep razors in your room on the floor) and it cut my foot open so deep my dad sewed it up right on the couch. My brother wasn't there but lance was. He let me bite his arm/hand until my dad was done and I was crying my eyes out and lance felt SO bad. He had such a big open heart, I hated seeing him get hurt. I miss and love you ??????

Brian, Dylan and I send our sincerest condolences to your family. I remember one Potomac Falls football game where I kept hearing everyone shout "Put Lance in!!!" and I was wondering "Who is Lance?!!" I remember driving Michael and Lance around many times, and he was welcome at our house. I am glad that Michael had such a good friend in Lance.

We will always have found memories of Lance. From the time when he was a little boy happily running and playing throughout Broad Run Farms to the times when we would see him in his football uniform at Potomac Falls High School. Seeing Lance just put a smile on your face and warmed your heart. That's how we will always remember him.

Lance was such a nice kid who made us smile everyday when I worked in the elementary school. A few months ago, Lance helped our family adopt our very shy dog through Lost Dog Rescue. Big, huge, hugs to the family of such a special young man. He was a lovely person who will be missed by his peers and the community..

Lance wasn't just a friend he was like a brother he picked me up when I was down literally picked me up. He would do anything to put a smile on my face. He's the one that got me out of my shell and to just be myself in front of people. The past few days all these memories keep coming back to me and all I really know is that I miss him and he was loved by everyone he was everyone's Teddybear that we love and miss so much.
