I'm so sorry to hear of Bob's passing. We met thru the support group and he was a wonderful man. Him and my husband James hit it off immediately. Hopefully, they are now having their chats in heaven.

What a loss. Kind, fun, caring is what I think of Bobbie. Most of my good childhood memories included Bob. Jerry Lewis, President Nixon and Wolfman Jack still make me laugh and think of him. The last conversation with him we sang Mr Johnny Verbeck and of course laughed. Hunting, the camp and just the supper table was always more fun with him. As a teenager he always looked out for me and helped keep me centered. He was a good man and will be missed by all that knew him. Love you Bob

Good night dear cousin until we meet again. I will never forget you and will cherish the memories of the summers that we got to spend together. You were always smiling and such fun to be around. I love the story about when you were little and had one finger in your ear and a thumb in your mouth.....with your little blanket. You will be missed and you are loved!! Until we meet again, I love you!!
