Jean was a wonderful lady I knew years ago. My daughter, Julie, loved her very much. Julie loved spending time with Jean at the farm. We just heard about Jean. Our prayers go out to the family.

Jean and Basil were the most wonderful neighbors anyone could wish for. Over the course of the last twenty years we had the good fortune of living next door. From the day we met I was deeply touched by Jean's great humanity and luminous smile. Rich, Emily, and I send our heartfelt condolences and warmest regards to her family. The Cleland Family

Thanks so much. She was very sweet up to the end. However, her mind was no longer there. She new enough to be frustrated that she couldn't remember anything. Very sad disease. She is happier with Ruth, Harry, Dad & Brother Rick. Will miss her.
