dear kathleen and joey and families, your beloved father was like a dad/granddad to my two daughters, margaret and mary price, when they were very little and i was a single mom. i shall never forget his kindness and strength, as well as that of your dear mother, alma. i always felt so safe in leaving my girls with your family and i shall always cherish the memories of two beautiful people who helped me raise my two amazing daughters (now 35 and 33!) may god bring you peace, hope, courage, strength, comfort, and love in these trying times. i promise to pray for all of you. with all my love and most sincere sympathy, rachel pierce (price) newell of leesburg
