Peggy - Do you remember me- - we worked together at The Pentagon. Phil and I were sorry to see John's obituary in The Post. I'd like to drop you a note, but I've been unable to get an address for you. Please send me your address: bobbyates@comcast.net.

Mr. Elliott used to call us at Loudoun Interfaith Relief and get a list of things we needed for the pantry, and within a few hours he would come diving up with his trunk loaded with everything we had asked for. He one day called and said he wasn't able to do all that lifting and instead sent a check so we could do the shopping. What a wonderful man and family. I am so sorry for your loss.
