Walter Gillette Davis

JUN 29, 1933 - OCT 14, 2014

Walter Gillette Davis passed peacefully on Tuesday, October 14, 2014.

Walter was born in 1933 to Thurlow and Ellen B. Davis in Trenton, NJ. Approximately one year later the family moved to North Arlington, NJ. Mr. Davis attended Queen of Peace Elementary School and North Arlington High School where he was active in baseball and football.

During the summers Walter and his 3 brothers (the late John Bradley and Thomas), stayed with their grandparents in Sharon, VT where he learned to play tennis on a grass court behind the house. He continued to play tennis throughout his life. Mr. Davis attended Georgia Tech as a co-op student and worked in Chattanooga, TN and Lodi, NJ. Upon his graduation as an Industrial Engineer, Mr. Davis began his professional career at NSA in Washington, DC and remained in this area since. Mr. Davis continued to work as a programmer in the Intel community, first with GE and then IBM where he designed and developed the first generalized database system, the Formatted File System. This system was migrated to new computer systems over a 20-year period. Mr. Davis joined PRC as a programmer and grew into executive positions and evolved into business development.

Significant achievements include the first overseas contract, largest integration contract in PRC, plus the Patent & Trademark Office 10-year automation contract. Mr. Davis next worked with a variety of small emerging companies; ISN, Digicon, CHM, Pragmatics and CyberData Technologies and excelled in growing each of these companies.

Mr. Davis has one deceased son, Douglas and leaves his beloved wife Cynthia, his brother David, daughters Cindy and April, his sons, Timothy, Christian (Patrice) and Brian (Ana); 13 Grandchildren, 1 great-grandchild, nieces and nephews, and his extended family at CyberData Technologies.

I met Walter in 2010 when we agreed to work together on an opportunity. I have wonderful memories of that early working relationship and what an exceptional person he was to work with. Of course, he was incredibly competent. More importantly, he always brought his warm personality and wry sense of humor to stressful situations and provided focus and guidance. In the ensuing years, I continued working with Walter on tough challenges and could always count on his good sense and fairness. I feel very privileged to have had known and worked with him. He was a great example of the consummate professional and friend, and I will miss him.

Angela Bender lit a candle in honor of Walter .

Walter was such a lovely man. He was a wonderful listener. He would give you his undivided attention and really consider your thoughts. He had a great sense of humor, and a twinkle in his eye. I enjoyed the time I spent getting to know Walter and Cynthia. She was always the foremost thought. He always treated his friends like family, and I for one felt the same. I will miss you Walter.
