Anita Kelly White-Barnstein Jean was my Aunt. A heart of gold and more love for her family then anyone could imagine. I am sorry that life got in the way and we lost contact for the past few yrs. I will always remember her long coversations, her warm smile and her laugh. How she was always more interested in your life then telling you about hers. I know she has missed my uncle terribly and therefore I can find joy through sadness knowing he was waiting with open arms to welcome her home. I know she will also be watchibg over her family as she has always done. Rest peacefully now Aunt Jean. Until we all meet again.
