Where do you begin to say something about someone who was already an angel. She never forgot my birthday as I so frequently forgot hers, I didn't deserve you Sue but you loved me anyway! I loved her as a friend, a confidante and the sister I never had. Her devotion to her family was unsurpassed and when she had her two beautiful granddaughters her joy was contagious. How I will miss you my dear friend. My heart is filled with all the sweetness and encouragement you brought to my life. I love you sweet lady. yours in my heart forever, Michele
