Through our working relationship with Val, Don and I met Anita many years ago at a Genworth function and then had the pleasure of traveling with them on many awards trips, solidifying a lovely friendship. We were both so impressed with Anita because, not only was she striking and always stylish, she was a fascinating person who always seemed to enjoy herself and everyone around her. She had such a presence about her but most importantly, she had a generous and loving heart. She was a joy and she is sorely missed. Our most sincerest condolences to Val and all their family. I worked with Anita at AMSA for many years and the one thing I will always remember about her is her infectious laugh. You just couldn't help laughing with her about even the stupidest thing. She was always in a good mood and had great shoes. She would laugh at that comment! The picture you have posted here is perfect... it captures her just the way I remember her. Pat Jennings
