Dear Barbara & Sally, I was shocked to read about Stu's passing in the IUP Magazine. My true belated sympathies. I met Stu as freshmen at IUP in 1970. We both shared a love of basketball, but he could actually play the game! We traveled in different circles, but would always reconnect somewhere unexpectedly. He was always a pleasure to be around & left you with a smile on your face. You both are in my prayers this Holiday Season. Bob O'Toole Chevy Chase IUP 74'

Barbara, both you and Phil are two of the nicest people I know. Such a great couple together! You have my condolences as I pray for God to rock you in HIS everlasting arms and strengthen you in the coming days. Phil made the world just a little bit better and I am proud to say that I was the beneficiary of some of his goodness. Love to you.

Once in a while someone comes along, someone who just naturally makes everyone feel a little happier. Stu was that someone. There are things he said that will always be remembered and ways he helped family and friends that will never be forgotten. The times spent with Stu were always good times that left everyone looking forward to the next. Thank you for the wonderful person you were Stu. You touched our hearts. Cathy, Christy, and John Barnes Barb and family; God is with you. As a close comfort, a perfect peace, a sure hope.

My loving thoughts and prayers go out to my Aunt Sally, Barbara, my cousins Michael and Mark, all of the extended Plitman family, and the entire circle of Stuart's many friends -- all of whom will always cherish the memories of Stuart's life and were blessed by every moment of his presence. I will forever remember my cousin Stuart both in childhood and in later years and the smiles and laughter he generated with his terrific sense of humor. Whenever I saw him, I would continuously tell him how much he amazingly resembled the great actor Jeff Bridges both in looks and demeanor, and inevitably, he would always jokingly retort (with a straight face) how much I amazingly reminded him of a "short person"..... yet his wonderful comedic personality was always wrapped within a warm, generous, and enormously kind heart. He indeed made this world a better place for everyone.With all my love,Stephen

To my Aunt Sally, Barbara, Mark, Michael, and family members, Stuart was a kind and loving man and I have great memories of him from the time he was a little boy and we played cowboys and Indians and hid under Grandma's kitchen table, to his achievements as a grown man. He was a special person who gave of himself to his community and to his family. Ken and I send our heartfelt sympathy to all of his family and friends. He was greatly loved and will be greatly missed. Ellen

Stu and I met when he invited me to join the board of the Valor Foundation some years ago. As with everything he did, he poured his heart and soul into this foundation. He was a decent and honorable man trying to make the community a better place to live, work and play. I enjoyed Stu's sense of humor and his indefatigable spirit. May memories of happy times sustain the family in the days to come. He will be remembered and missed! Randy Kelley Clarksville TN

Shelley and family, we were so sad to hear of the loss of Stu. We know he fought the good fight for a long time. This is a poem I hope you find comforting: Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glintz on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle, autumn rain. When you awake in the morning's hush, I am the soft, uplifting rush Of quiet birds in circling flight. I am the bright star that shines at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there. I did not die. With sympathy, Hilary & Sam Stowers
