Ethel Fulcher

NOV 25, 2005

Ethel Carol Fulcher died November 25, 2005 in Reston Hospital. She was the wife of the late Col. Richard P. Fulcher, USAF (Ret.) and a resident of Northern VA for over 40 years.

Born in New York City, she attended New York Univ. and the American School of Design. She volunteered for military service during World War II where she met and married her husband. When her children left for college, she worked in retail at Lord & Taylor until retirement.

A lovely, gracious and cultivated person, she had many friends in the area. Her interests included classical music, opera, art history and science. She enjoyed travel and meeting people. She volunteered her support for many arts organizations, being a founding member of the Northern Virginia Youth Symphony.

She is survived by her two daughters, Dr. Jane F. Fulcher of Bloomington, IN and Dr. Carol A. Fulcher of Palo Alto, CA. A memorial service will be held for her at the Falcons Landing retirement community in Sterling, VA on Wednesday, Dec. 28, 2005 at 1 PM.
