

Eleanor Kellogg

FEB 7, 1913 - FEB 6, 2009

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Tribute Wall	Page 4

Eleanor Kellogg

FEB 7, 1913 - FEB 6, 2009

Eleanor Peterman Kellogg went to join her Lord and Savior on the eve of her 96th birthday on February 6, 2009. She died in the loving care of providers at Faith House in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Mrs. Kellogg was born on February 7, 1913, in Steele, North Dakota, the oldest of six children of the late Rudolph and Ora Peterman. She graduated from Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois, in 1934, where she met her beloved, Edward Kellogg, her husband of 65 years. Mrs. Kellogg shared her love of literature, drama, and poetry with her students as a school teacher for many years in the San Diego school district. Her dramatic performances delighted her students, friends and family throughout the years.

The Kellogg's hospitality is fondly remembered by the many who enjoyed Mrs. Kellogg's home-cooked meals and winning smile in a number of communities including San Diego, CA, and Leesburg, Virginia. As a pastor's wife, Mrs. Kellogg taught Sunday School, joyfully directed the church choir, and played the piano and organ.

Mrs. Kellogg is survived by her brothers Bernard Peterman of Palm Springs, CA, and Lyman Peterman of San Diego, CA; her five children Gwendolyn Urban of Wilmington, Delaware, Susan Schmurr of Georgetown, Texas, Edward Kellogg of Chattanooga, Tennessee, Deborah Kropp of Berkeley, CA, and Janice Heath of Chattanooga, TN; her sixteen grandchildren, seventeen great-grandchildren, and two great-great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 14, 2009 at 2:00pm at Bethel Orthodox Presbyterian Church, 19856 Evergreen Mills, Leesburg, VA.

Interment will be held privately in Union Cemetery, Leesburg, VA.

Tribute Wall

Eleanor Kellogg

FEB 7, 1913 - FEB 6, 2009

Anonymous posted:

Hi Cousins, Wish I could have worked it out to be with you on Saturday. I'll be thinking of you as you pay tribute to your beautiful mother and my precious aunt. I have so many blessed memories that I am thankful for. I am picturing the grand Peterman reunion our parents are having in heaven. Isn't God Good? All my love, JoAnne##imported-begin##Jo Anne Peterson##imported-end##

February 12 at 6:38 PM

Anonymous posted:

So many people have called to share their memories of your dear Mother. Her genuine hospitality was a manifestation of the love of Christ in her.. Every now and then a person like Eleanor has, through the years, kept not only the Church alive, but also Christ's love burning brightly in the midst of God's people.You are all in our thoughts and prayers. I love you very much. Aunt Mary##imported-begin##Mary Peterman##imported-end##

February 12 at 5:29 PM

Anonymous posted:

I just wanted to say what wonderful memories I have of my Aunt Eleanor. It was always so much fun to go play or sleep over at the Kellogg home growing up. Aunt Eleanor put up with us getting sugar all over the kitchen while making home made taffy. Her dinners were always so good. She was always so loving to us. My Uncle Ed and Aunt Eleanor were always so supportive of me when I was having some tough times raising my 3 mostly on my own. They sent me money now and then and it always sure helped. I wish I could be there to give you all hugs. My heart is there. Love cousin, Celia##imported-begin##Celia ##imported-end##

February 12 at 5:21 PM

Anonymous posted:

Floss and I are down here in Florida and we learned about the passage to heaven of your mother, Ed, via the internet. What a great person!! Please convey our love to the Kellog family when you see them in Leesburg.Rooted in Jesus, Rooted in LoveChuck and Floss##imported-begin##Chuck & Floss Anderson##imported-end##

February 10 at 6:54 AM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Eleanor by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit