

Barbara Daugherty

OCT 10, 1922 - MAR 20, 2009

Scan to Visit

Table of Contents

Obituary	Page 3
Events	Page 4
Tribute Wall	Page 5

Barbara Daugherty

OCT 10, 1922 - MAR 20, 2009

Barbara M. Daugherty, 86, passed away March 20, 2009 in Leesburg, VA. Born in London, England, October 10, 1922 the eldest of six children, she is survived by her daughter, Ann Beckham and her son-in-law Gregory of South Riding, VA, three grandchildren, Catherine Hall of Charlotte, NC, Thomas Beckham of Arlington, VA and Jon Beckham of San Francisco, CA, one great-grandson, Jonathan Hall; and her brothers Geoffrey Whitworth of Dereham, Norfolk, England and Nigel Whitworth of Sydney, Australia. Her husband, Frank L. Daugherty, predeceased her in 2005.

Raised in London, Barbara joined the Women's Land Army, known as the "Land Girls", in World War II and was sent to work on farms in the English countryside to replace men who had gone to war. In 1946, she came to the U.S. as a war bride aboard the SS Washington, landing in New York on March 26.

Barbara was a devout Catholic and daily communicant at Holy Rosary Church in Clinton, MO for many years and St. Timothy parish in Chantilly, VA after moving to live with her daughter. At Holy Rosary she was the church secretary and the Altar Society Treasurer. She took care of the altar linens, helped with decorating the altar for Christmas, confirmation, Pentecost, and Easter, including the purchase of flowers; helped with the turkey dinners at the parish; cooked for the priests at times; and knew the history of the parish, which was a help to new parish priests as they moved to Clinton.

A funeral Mass will be said on Friday, March 27, 2009 at 10:00 a.m. at St. Timothy Catholic Church, Chantilly, VA and a memorial Mass will be said in Clinton, MO on Friday, April 24 at 11:00 a.m. with interment of the ashes at Englewood Cemetery, Clinton, MO.

Events

Barbara Daugherty

OCT 10, 1922 - MAR 20, 2009

Service

 Friday, March 27, 2009

 10:00 AM ET

 Saint Timothy Catholic Church
13807 Poplar Tree Road, Chantilly VA

Tribute Wall

Barbara Daugherty

OCT 10, 1922 - MAR 20, 2009

Anonymous posted:

Like Barbara, I was a Londoner and a World War II "GI BRIDE" who sailed to America in 1946, landing in New York. We too now live in the Leesburg, VA area and I'm very sorry I that I never met Barbara, such a wonderful spiritual woman.##imported-begin##Vera A. Long##imported-end##

April 9 at 12:30 PM

Anonymous posted:

Dear Ann: I am sorry to hear about your mother, she was a lovely lady and I know a very devoted Catholic. You have my deepest sympathy and my prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##Myra Roberts Finks##imported-end##

March 30 at 5:55 AM

Anonymous posted:

Ann, May you find comfort and peace at this time. Your mother was a wonderful lady. May you find peace in the memories of her life on this earth. Now knowing she is in good hands. Cherish those memories, they do... last you for a life time. My prayers are with you. May God bless you. Vicki##imported-begin##Vicki Phelps##imported-end##

March 28 at 6:40 PM

Anonymous posted:

Ann, I am sorry to hear of your Mother passing. I am glad that you and your family were able to have her in your home and to spend time with her. Best regards from a fellow Clinton school classmate.##imported-begin##Brenda (Hunt) Walton##imported-end##

March 28 at 8:58 AM

Anonymous posted:

Ann & Family, I'm so sorry to hear about your mother's passing. I remember her as a strong, dynamic person, and she obviously was a dynamo at Holy Rosary all those years. What a lovely picture of her here! I know it and many other things will spark good memories that will comfort you in the coming days. As a mother cradles her child, may God enfold you in the palm of His hand during these sad times.--Mary Alice##imported-begin##Mary Alice Racer Lyon##imported-end##

March 27 at 10:04 PM

Tribute Wall

Barbara Daugherty

OCT 10, 1922 - MAR 20, 2009

Anonymous posted:

Dear Ann, We are so sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. Barbara was very dear to us, she kept us on tract with our Lord Jesus Christ. Almost every day when we take our granddaughter to Holy Rosary School, we see your mother's house, and think of her. It is ironic that just last week we were having a discussion about your mother, and wondered how she was getting along. Now we know she has gone to be with the Lord. We know she will have things straightened out up there, when we get there. Take care of yourself, and maybe we can get together at a class reunion. God bless, Steve & Patty Carter##imported-begin##Steve & Patty Carter##imported-end##

March 26 at 6:05 PM

Memories only last if you share them

Join us in honoring Barbara by contributing to a collection of shared memories.

Scan to Visit