Mervin Jackson

NOV 10, 1929 - APR 10, 2009

MERVIN JACKSON, 79, a life long resident of Leesburg, Virginia, died on April 10, 2009 in Leesburg. Mr. Jackson was born November 10, 1929 in Leesburg to the late Anna Jackson and Charles Stinger. He worked with Whitmore General Store in Leesburg during the 1940's and 50's. Mr. Jackson worked with Melpar industries in Falls Church, VA before his career as a Bindery specialist with the FBI at Washington, DC headquarters. He retired from the FBI in 1994 and became a public servant as a member of the Leesburg Planning Commission. Mr. Jackson was elected to the Leesburg Town Council and during his term was appointed to Vice Mayor. He was a past member of Providence Baptist Church, serving as superintendent, church treasurer and teaching Sunday school. In more recent years he was a faithful member at First Mount Olive Baptist Church until his decline in health. Mr. Jackson served on the Monroe Bank board of directors and enjoyed spending time with his family, umpiring baseball, fishing, hunting and offering his services where needed.

Mr. Jackson is survived by his beloved wife of 52 years, Jean Ford Jackson of Leesburg; two daughters: Teresa Brooks of Herndon, Vernita Jackson of Sterling; one aunt: Ethel Jackson of Chester, PA; three brothers: Charles Stinger of Washington, DC, William (Berk) Stinger of Washington, DC, Rev. Harold S. Stinger of Hamilton, VA; two sisters: Marion Brooks of Washington, DC, Manzellar (Grace) Ford of Laurel, MD; two grandsons: Vernith and Anthony; one great granddaughter: Athena; three sister in laws; one brother in law and a host of other relatives and friends.

Friends may call at First Mount Olive Baptist Church, 216 West Loudoun Street in Leesburg from 7-9pm on Wednesday, April 15th and from 9am until the time of services at 11:00 am on Thursday, April 16th. Reverend Harold S. Stinger will be officiating. Interment will be in Mt. Zion Community Cemetery, Leesburg.

May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2T imothy 4:7. We are so sorry to read of Mervin's passing. Our families go back to the time when our grandmothers (Miss Mag and Miss Manzellar) lived next door to each other on Liberty St.(Baby St. then) in Leesburg. Seeing the picture of your father and reading his obituary makes me believe that you may have inherited some of your kindness from him. There certainly is a family resemblance. Having lost my Dad 9 years ago, I know a hole is left that can never be filled, but I also know that the lifetime of memories will serve you well.
