Myrtle Elizabeth Revill

JAN 19, 1916 - MAY 25, 2009

Myrrtle Elizabeth Revill, formerly of Santa Barbara, CA and a resident of Leesburg, VA for the past 8 years died peacefully in her sleep at home on May 25th. She was 93.

Mrs. Revill was born in Glasgow, Scotland. She came to the United States via Montreal, Canada after serving as an RAF officer during WW II. She worked as a legal assistant in both the San Joaquin and Santa Barbara counties in California for many years until her retirement.

Mrs. Revill loved to sail with her husband Arthur, spending countless hours crossing the Pacific Ocean to the Channel Islands. She was an avid tennis player and an accomplished musician. Above all else, Mrs. Revill shared a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, her Savior.

She is survived by nieces Hilary Parr Cobb of Houston, TX, Honor Parr Mindnich of Potomac, MD and Tansy Parr Lovell of Leesburg, VA and many other loving family members both in the United States and Great Britain.

I will always love you Auntie Myrtle and when I see hummingbirds, I will think of you, when I see the Nantucket Sound, I will remember sailing in Saucey and when I see the Channel Islands again, I will pretend you are there with me. I will miss you terribly and I will miss your love. I love you.##imported-begin##Honor Parr Mindnich##imported-end##
