I give my condolences to your beloved family. Words cannot express the feelings that I have as I found out that you had passed on. We were close childhood friends back in the 70s at Holy Spirit School. You were my best friend. I have fond memories of us as kids buying and reading comic books and indulging our insatiable appetites for superheroes and science fiction. Since we'd lost touch with each other over two and half decades ago, I had such hopes that we might one day reunite with each other in this life. I guess the good Lord had other plans for you my dear friend. Your memory will forever live in my heart. Rest in peace, dear Lance. Your friend, Steve##imported-begin##Steve Shululu##imported-end##

I didn't know Lance when he was among us...but as a child of the most high God we were indeed connected. My prayers are with those dear loved ones who are left behind to find their way through the grief, sorrow, and pain. Keep placing one foot in front of the other family. God has joy up ahead. Linda and Justin you will say Lance's name and smile again. God Bless you both.
