George, Elena, Katina, and family, Thank you for sharing George with us. We have been neighbors since 1983. We can confirm the joy for life of George and your mom, and their pride and total love of all of their children and their accomplishments and of their families. I have a lasting, wonderful picture of George riding by waving in his red convertible, and fond remembrance of his using his snowblower to clear our sidewalk and lighter for the luminaires for X-mas Hamlet lights. We are with you in this time of sorrow but encourage you all to keep the great memories in your heart and your dad will always be there. Take care and take comfort in each other, as George lives within each of you. Tina and John Dion##imported-begin##John and Christine Dion##imported-end##

I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. You can beassured that comfort and hope are found in the pages of the Bible. Revelations 21:4 speaks of a time when sorrow will be no more. This is a wonderful hope during our times of grief and pain. I met George when I came to the State Department years ago. We traveled together and talked about everything as the two early birds in our small group for many years until he retired. I loved him as a trusted mentor and friend; he was a very smart, good man. My condolences to his family and George will truly be missed by many.##imported-begin##Henry D. Ingram Jr##imported-end##
