Danny want a great person he was. I had the pleasure of taking care of Danny during his stays at Hopkins. I always seen the best in him. Over the last few months with the Steelers losing to the Ravens both times this season and Tim Telbow doing his thing. I thought of Danny and how we always talked sports. I came across a paper today with this website information on it and I never was able to extend my thoughts out to his family. I hope that everyone is doing good. Danny was an amazing person and it touch my life to be able to care for him. With lots of love,Tiffany RaineyTrainey3@yahoo.com

Our thoughts and prayers are with the Fritz family during this difficult period. I personally have some good memories regarding Danny. I took many notes while going bass fishing with Danny over the years. Eventhough this is a time to mourn it's also a time of celebration for Danny's life here on earth. His last few years on earth were rough and he fought hard to stay with his family. Danny's suffering is now over and he's in a much better place, where he is once again the great athlete and outdoorsman once again but now it's for eternity.Rollins Family##imported-begin##Jeff Rollins##imported-end##
