Kathy always kept track of people on the computer . . . I only check my e-mail a few times a year, hence my belated entry. Well, that and the fact that I just didn't know what to say. Dearest cousin, you left this world far too early. I know that you waited a very long time to find the love of your life and to marry him, now he is left alone to grieve. Aunt Mariell, I am so sorry. I cannot even imagine your pain, yours and the entire family. Just know you are loved even if you are far away.##imported-begin##Mariel VanAllen-Villalobos##imported-end##

Kathy...I will miss you so! You were such a wonderful confidant, friend and sister for me....God really knows how to connect two people, even though in all the years we've known each other, we've never met in person! But like I've said before, we surely will! I'm happy knowing that YOU are in PERFECT peace and in undescrivable JOY! And I'm so glad that God brought you and Charles together....I only spoke with him briefly, but YOU spoke of him often and he was JUST what you needed to have in a man. You two were made for each other :). Love you Kathy-kinz...love, Ronnie-Kinz (as you nick-named me) :))##imported-begin##Veronica Petty##imported-end##

Dear Charlie and family, We are so sorry to hear of Kathy's passing, but we also rejoice that she has moved into her permanent home in heaven where there are no more tears and she can look upon the face of our Saviour and Lord, Jesus Christ. We will be praying for all of you - especially you, Charlie. Al and I also married in 2007 from Mingle, and neither one of us can imagine the pain of losing the other. Charlie, may God grant you peace and comfort in the knowledge that this parting is only temporary. We remember how amazingly faithful and joyful Kathy was, and always enjoyed chatting with you both in Mingle!"But we do not want you to be uninformed, brethren, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve, as do the rest, who have no hope. We will miss Kathy very much as part of our church circle, and personally, as our friend. She and I developed a close friendship over the past few years and we are the ones who are blessed to be inspired by her faith and love of the Lord. We had so much in common, with a love of books, birds, cats, good friends, humor, and our faith in the Lord. She had a love and knowledge of the Bible like no one I know. She loved Charles so much and wanted more time with him. Her family and home church in Canada meant so much to her and the family's visit in November was important to her. May her soul be at rest and may God continue to comfort Charles. You are an honorable husband and man. We were all blessed that you brought her to Ashburn.
