Dear Diane, Thank you for taking the time to send us a note regarding the passing of your mother. She left an indelible mark on Trinity and her name comes up in conversations to this day when mentioning people who worked hard in so many ways. We spoke with sadness this morning at our Small Group when we learned of her passing. She was a very thoughtful and special lady. We send our sympathy to you and your family. With love, Pat, 'Dolph, Diane (Moore) and Glenn Haug##imported-begin##Pat Haug##imported-end##

Dear Diane, Melanie, and family, I am so sorry about your Mom. She was my dear friend and coworker. She loved her job at the Hallmark store and we all loved her. It has been my great joy to visit with her these past several years. We shared lots of fun adventures. I especially remember how thrilled she was to have Austin in her life. The times we visited him at day care brought her so much happiness. I will always miss you, my friend. Love and peace, Susan##imported-begin##Susan Charest ##imported-end##
