Jerre George Lowe

JAN 10, 1930 - JAN 22, 2010

Mr. Jerre George Lowe, 80, of Ashburn, VA, died Friday, January 22, 2010, at INOVA Loudoun Hospital Center in Lansdowne, VA.

Jerre was born January 10, 1930 in Washington, DC, to the late John and Ella Lowe. After serving his country in the United States Navy, Jerre was employed by The Washington Post as a Photo Engraver. He worked for the paper from 1953 until retiring in 1988.

His wife Louise Bell Buckner Lowe predeceased him in 1992.

He is survived by two sons: Michael John Lowe & his wife Kathe, of Ashburn, VA; and William Patrick Lowe, of Centreville, VA.

Mr. Lowe is also survived by a sister-in-law: Annette Lowe of Wheaton, MD; three Granddaughters: Lindsay Perrault, Ashleigh Stocks, and Taylor Lowe; and three Great-Grand Children: Alyssa, Emily, and Braylan.

The family will receive guests on Tuesday, January 26, 2010 from 6 to 8 pm, at the Loudoun Funeral Chapel, 158 Catoctin Circle, SE, Leesburg, VA 20175. A Funeral Mass will be held at St. Theresa Catholic Church, St. Theresa Lane, Ashburn, VA, at 11:00 AM, Wednesday, January 27, 2010, Rev. Daniel Spsychala officiating

Mike, Billo and Kathe, I am so sorry for your loss. I was thrilled I was able to view his video and tears came to my eyes as they are now. You can just see and feel the love he had from his family and the love he gave to his family. Jerre was always a good looking man and he looked great at 80 as well. I am not able to be there in person, but please know I am thinking and praying for your family. All my Love to all of you, Judy Farr Laufer##imported-begin##Judy Farr Laufer##imported-end##

I will miss Jerre very much. He was my next door neighbor for the last 5 1/2 years in Ashburn, VA. He would always make a point to say hello, wave and we would chat about our daily lives. We exchanged Christmas Cards and sometimes he would get my UPS packages by accident. He will be missed around the Cornstalk neighborhood. I'm sorry for your loss.##imported-begin##Kate Trotter##imported-end##

Jerre represented what's good in the world and I know I am better off having known him - even for the short time I did. He was gentle and caring and LOVES his family vigorously. I am glad that I could contribute in a small way with my photographs of him.##imported-begin##Terry Brennan##imported-end##

I have not known Jerre that long, but when I would see him and say hello he always had a big smile on his face. Jerre was one of those people that always was there when you need him and gave good advice. He was always making me smile and laugh with his jokes. We will truly miss him and it will not be the same with out him around, but the memories of him will live on. Jerre is in a better place now and all we can do is value the moments we shared with him. Sincerely, Louise ##imported-begin##Friend of Jerre: Louise Deloatch##imported-end##

Earl and I wish to express our deepest sympathy in the loss of your Dad and Grandad. We remember Jerre as neighbors in the 60s on Magarity Rd. We always enjoyed Louise and Jerre. Jerre and I (Rose) were both born in DC and grew up there. We were birthday buddies -- he Jan. 10th and me Jan. 3rd and we both just turned 80. We are sure your family will greatly miss him as will we and of course "The Redskins." Fondly Rose and Earl Smith ##imported-begin##Rosemarie and Earl Smith##imported-end##
