A TIME TO BE BORN

This man was Rays Matthew Dumuje.

He hailed from the nearby Ekiagbon Quarters also in Aladja.

It did not take him long to ask for her hand in marriage.

Mrs Mary Dumuje was a loving, caring and loyal wife and mother. Mary was married to the late Maj-Gen R. M. Dumuje (rtd.). Mary in the early years travelled everywhere her husband was stationed in his military career. First port of call was to Abeokuta, then Kaduna, Nigeria. It was in

Tribute to a Great Mother

Mummy, We still cannot believe you have left us. The love, care and values you brought us up on, is what has made us such a close-knit unit. You were central to all the goings-on in the Dumuje household. Your special blend of doing things has left a permanent mark on each and everyone of us. You live on in everyone of us all. Only the Good die young. May you rest in Perfect Peace in the presence & care of your father in Heaven.

Your loving children, xxxx

We cannot believe this very sad news. Mrs Dumuje has been part of our family for about 40 years now. A very devoted wife and loving mother. "Worigida" as I fondly called her will be very sadly missed. I remember all the years our 2 families spent together as neighbours. When we first met her, only 4 of her 11 children had been born! We were there for every other birth after that. Our 2 families laughed together and cried together. We were always there for each other. Attended each others weddings etc. I would like to believe that she has met up with my own very dear mother who is also in heaven, and that they will both look down at all their dear children and continue to be proud of the way we are living our lives. RIP dear Worigida.##imported-begin##HELEN ORDIA PERRY & FAMILY##imported-end##

Dear Sophia, Brad, Children and Loved ones of Mary:Your Mother was full of elegance and grace, and Martin and I were honored to know her. Her physical beauty was remarkable, but it was eclipsed by her inner beauty. I have seen the same in her children, and it is an honorable accomplishment to pass on joyous beauty in life and to the world. God Bless all who were touched by the life of this magnificent woman.
