Frank Anthony Andy

APR 14, 1921 - FEB 12, 2010

R et. Program Analyst for Secretary of Defense

Mr. Frank Anthony Andy, age 88, died Friday, February 12, 2010, at INOVA Fairfax Hospital in Falls Church, VA.

A son of the late Giuseppe Andy and Agatha Pizzuto, Mr. Andy was born on April 14, 1921 in Morgantown, WV, where he grew up and later graduated Phi Beta Kappa from West Virginia University.

Mr. Andy served his country honorably in the United States Navy during WWII. On June 11, 1944, then Chief Petty Officer Andy was wounded during the Normandy invasion off the coast of France. He was subsequently awarded the Purple Heart medal.

After his military service, Mr. Andy was employed as a civilian Program Analyst with the Office of the Secretary of Defense, newly established by the Department of Defense in 1947 to unify the Departments of the Army, Navy, and Air Force. For over 34 years, Mr. Andy worked in an organization devoted to coordinating the Research and Development programs of the three Services under fourteen different Secretaries of Defense. He was awarded the Secretary of Defense Meritorious Civilian Service Award when he retired in 1980.

Mr. Andy is survived by his wife of 63 years, Norma Louise Callihan Andy; his son, Steven Michael Andy; his daughter, Cyndi Andy Lee; and his two granddaughters, Amber Alena Davis and Tiffany Lea Davis.

Friends may call the Loudoun Funeral Chapel, where the family will receive friends from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Monday, February 22, 2010. Funeral service and interment will be held at Arlington National Cemetery at 2 p.m. on Monday, February 22, 2010.

Frank, Thank you for your many years of service to our country. It is an honor to have known you, though for too short a time. When I see your daughter I will be reminded of your warm smile and caring nature. She's a chip off the ol' block in so many ways. We are proud to call her our friend. Thank you for all you have added to our lives. God bless.##imported-begin##Paul and Mary Lou Crews##imported-end##

For PapaWhat can you say when someone askswhat do you remember most aboutsomeone you'll never forget?How can you roll a lifetime of experiencesinto a single expression?Words alone cannot express the gloryand the magnitude of a good man's lifeFeelings can better explain that connection, that unbreakable love he felt for his family,the smiles he brought to everyone's faces,his love of life, and his courageous personaare wonderful memories, while at the same time lead to a lingering ache when you thinkdid we do enough while he was with us?Could we possibly have conveyed how muchhe meant to us in our everyday lives?And how much of an inspiration and a miracleit was to have such a loving person to call ourgrandfather and dad and husband?Growing up, and knowing that he was there changed the ways in which we embraced the world.The choices we made, and the paths we took in lifewere so influenced by having him as a role model.We know that he thought the world of us,and on this day, we want to surround him withnothing but as much love as he brought into our lives.Papa, you will always be in our hearts wherever our lives may take us.Your spirit will guide us, and give us the strength and the wisdomto know the right path, as you have so aptly shown usin the steadfast guidance you so selflessly gave.Thank you so much for your time with us.You have and will continue to bless us, in memory as much as in life.You are loved and greatly missed.##imported-begin##Amber Davis##imported-end##

Uncle Frank, You were always my favorite uncle, and a friend as well. I remember when you accompanied me on a Greyhound bus from Washington, DC, to spend the summer of 1942 at Grandma's house in Morgantown. You were in your Navy uniform. I have fond memories of your boundless energy and ever-present sense of humor. You were the patriarch of the Andy family, the rock among eight siblings. May you rest in peace. I miss you.
