Dearest Nancy and family, I am very sorry to hear of your loss. You and Marvin have been in love for as long as I can remember knowing you two in high school. You both were very blessed to have each other and to have had as much time together as you did, though 100 years wouldn't have been long enough. I am with you in spirit. Much love, Nora##imported-begin##Nora (Coumes) Ross##imported-end##

To Nancy, Marvin Jr, Scott and families. I believe I first met Marvin in high school gym class and caught many touchdowns from him then and went on to play Football & Baseball with him for the Raiders. Marvin was a fine ball player, always giving his most on the field and off. More importantly he was a fine man, father and husband. I count it as a priveledge to have had Marvin as a friend. Our Prayers are with Nancy and the Family. Respectfully,Stan Pangle##imported-begin##Stanley Pangle##imported-end##

I have known Marvin and Nancy since my high school days at County where we were fellow classmates. The two of them made a great couple and I know they enjoyed life. Marvin always had that sense of humor and that look on his face. I have many fond memories of Marvin and I will cherish them forever. The last time I was with Marvin and Nancy was at a class reunion. Wishing you peace and everlasting friendship.##imported-begin##Dick Hickman##imported-end##
