Erin Marie Dennington

OCT 25, 1979 - MAY 11, 2010

Erin Marie Dennington, 30, of Centreville, VA, Associate Editor of Tax Analysts a non-profit publisher of tax information, passed away suddenly from an Asthma attack on Tuesday, May 11, 2010. Erin was born on October 25, 1979 in Houston, TX. She is the daughter of John and Sharon Dennington of South Riding, VA.

Erin was a graduate of George Mason University in 2002. While in college, she worked for and volunteered with Chantilly Public Library, and enjoyed ushering at Wolf Trap. As a youth she enjoyed playing softball for eight years on a SYA team in Centreville, VA where she was known by the nickname of "Hammerin' Hank" by opposing teams for her astounding homerun power.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by her brothers, Sean Kenneth Dennington and his wife Claudia Vanessa of Sterling, and James Kenneth Lee Dennington of South Riding; her paternal grandparents: Kenneth and Joan Dennington of The Villages, FL; her god mother: Susan T. Kennedy of Deerfield, IL; 1 nephew: Sean Kenneth, Jr.; her boy friend: Josh Yerby of Centreville, and best friend: Stuart Jones of Miami, FL.

Erin was predeceased by her maternal grandparents: Stanley and Mildred Christenson and her godfather: Edward O. Kennedy. Friends may call on Friday, May 14, 2010, where the family will receive guests from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 pm at the Loudoun Funeral Chapel, 158 Catoctin Circle, SE, Leesburg, VA.

A funeral Mass will be held on Saturday morning May 15, 2010 at 10:30 a.m. at St. John the Apostle Catholic Church, 231 North King Street, Leesburg, VA 20175. Interment will be held privately at a later date. Erin suffered from brutal migraines.

She was a gifted and published writer of poetry, where she found brief periods of relief from debilitating episodes of depression. Erin's generous spirit lives on through organ and tissue donation.

Erin, it seems but yesterday that we first met. It seemed more an accident in that our paths cross then anything. But i quickly realised that you were a very generous and caring soul. I will always remember that. Thank you very much for being who you are. You will be missed.##imported-begin##Alex Leung##imported-end##

My condolences during this difficult time. I worked in the same department as Erin for all of her eight years at Tax Analysts and respected her for meticulousness, reliability, and attention to detail. She was first-rate in every sense and will certainly be missed -- but never forgotten.##imported-begin##Doug Sheppard##imported-end##

I first met Erin when she began working for FCPL as a page at Centreville Library. Erin later worked as a Sunday Circ Aide for over 10 years at Chantilly and she continued on as a loyal Sunday Circulation Volunteer. Erin loved volunteering in the library and was an avid reader. She especially loved young adult materials for which she gave wonderful reader's advisory and reviews. It was truly a gift to have her talents shared with us. We will miss her terribly and always cherish her kindness and giving spirit.##imported-begin##Jennifer##imported-end##

Erin to me defined what a beautiful human being is, and she touched my heart. I cared about her, and I believe she genuinely cared about everyone she met. This is a tragic loss without any doubt. She has to be in heaven now, with no migraines, no sorrows, and nothing but pure love filling her soul.##imported-begin##Angie G. in Wisconsin##imported-end##

Sweet kind Erin....I will always remember the sweetness in your face when you were with my granddaughter, your godchild Ayla. I can honestly say I have never seen such gentleness in a person. Your parents must be very proud because they raised an awesome woman. Even though you are not here anymore, my heart holds many special memories. Thank you for touching my life.##imported-begin##Teresa Magarity##imported-end##

Erin, I loved you and I knew I was yours entirely when we first met. I ran to you and hugged you tight, and you later told me that was your favorite memory of me, how I ran to you. I had no idea that God would need you so soon, to come to his side, but I treasure every moment we had together. You are the friend of my soul, cara mo anam, and I'll have you in my heart forever. Yours eternally, Joshie.##imported-begin##Joshua Yerby##imported-end##
