We were very sorry to learn of Pat's passing. We have many fond memories of "grandma Pat", including her love of Elvis, her costumes on Halloween, her sense of humor, and the many BBQs and water fights we shared at Ed and Pat's pool. She was a sweet woman with a big heart, and she always put a smile on our faces. We will miss her. I still vividly recall meeting Pat over 20 years ago. That twinkle in her eye, the warmth in her voice and hug. Her I'm-so-excited-to-see-you grace and warmth was consistent throughout all of the years I was blessed to know her. I will miss her so.
