Shirley and her husband were our immediate neighbors on Vanderbilt Avenue, on Staten Island, New York, in the 1970's and 1980's. She and her husband John were the kindest, respectful, respected and the most genuine folks you'd ever meet. Although I just discovered this obituary on January 20, 2026, I send my sincere condolences to her entire family in America, the UK and Trinidad TT. Mr Gregory John Brown Residing in Ethiopia ET

Though I knew Shirley for a mere 7 years or so, it only took a hot minute for me to like her! I quickly realized that petite little lady was a lionness at heart....strong-willed, yet gentle in spirit. Though I will miss seeing those awesome teeth, I will simply miss seeing her, much more. Peace be with you, my friend. Dr. Dina##imported-begin##Dr. Dina Bambrey##imported-end##

Shirl, I am writing this note with grief in my heart, you have left us so suddenly, you promise to return to Florida some day. The short time I have come to know you, you have brought joy to me and my family, last time I saw you in December 2008, we had a wonderful time, and you promised you will return I was awaiting that day, you were like a sister and a true friend, you will be truly missed. The Lord had better plans for you All the pains and sufferings are no more. you are in the arms of your Saviour. Someday we will meet. MAY YOU REST IN PEACE. your dear friend Helen and family##imported-begin##Helen O. Taylor and family and Morris Flood##imported-end##

Aunty Shirley holds a very special place from my early childhood memories until now. She will be sorely missed. My only solace, is that she is now resting in the loving arms of her savior, looking down on us. My God bless and keep the rest of our entire family. ~##imported-begin##Leslie-Ann, Giselle & Malachi Valley##imported-end##

Sister Shirley was an amazing woman of God. While I was living in Virginia in 2005, she encouraged me to follow God's plan for my life. As a result, The Bridge Covenant Church is now a growing church in the Detroit area. Thank you sister Shirley, your words of wisdom still guide me on my journey. You are loved and will be missed.
