I've worked with Brian "Chillee" for years and have heard so many "Richard stories" that I feel like I've known you for just as many years. All of us at the "street department", loved to listen to Chillee tell those stories. We all felt a true sadness when we heard the news. We will all miss seeing you around town and sending Brian for scratch off tickets. It was very easy to see the closeness of your family. It is truly something to behold. I know this is quite a blow to them all. God bless you and all of the Roberts family. I know the stories will live on through your loved ones Richard. Peace be with you all.
