Dear Barbara and family,We were very sad to hear of Gene's passing and offer our prayers for you all. My friendship with you and Gene began some 30 years ago and continues on. The bluegrass community will remember Gene as a great friend, always willing to help out, with a mischievous personality to spice things up now and then. I know the next time I perform at Lucketts, Gene will be there asking for his favorite song (and telling me I'm too loud). Peace be with you, my friiend.##imported-begin##Wayne Lanham##imported-end##

Dear Barbara & family: Rusty and I were so sorry to hear of Gene's passing. His efforts on behalf of Lucketts knew no bounds. All musicians who have had the honor of performing at the wonderful Lucketts venue owe him a great debt of gratitude and will miss being in his company. Patent Pending's engagement there this past April 24th, found Gene sitting beside the sound system, I always went out of my way to speak to him, as he had a great way of making me laugh with a good tease! I wish you as much peace as you can find, as I know this is a profound loss.
