Cherylyn, you have been in my thoughts. I never met Tommy, but your Mom always talked about him. I was very lucky to have known your Mom all these years. After I would see her...I would comment to my clients or someone working with me that she is an amazing person. She amazed me with her ability to always smile and we would end up laughing about anything we were talking about. She was open with me, and life brought her more than her share of challenges...she chose to not let it all change her spirit. She was so strong ! She can rest now. She did her best to find the humor in life and I will miss her very much!##imported-begin##Elizabeth Storms##imported-end##

Of all the seven cousins in the Weisbrod family, Kathy and I were the only girls. She was the youngest and I, the oldest. Fifty years ago when I married Chuck, it was only appropriate that I named her as my Maid of Honor. After all, she was my only girl cousin and she was special. Though we have lived far apart for many years, we still connected during an occasional phone call. I will miss her dry wit, wonderful sense of humor and laughter. Cherlyn and Tommy, love and my best to each of you and your families. Cousin Marion##imported-begin##Marion Weisbrod Persons##imported-end##

We will miss Clyde's sister and will continue to remember the good times we enjoyed. We're so glad that we came to Virginia in September to visit with Kathy. It was also very nice to be able to see all family members while we were there. Kathy would have been very proud of her children the way they took care of her in her final days. Cherylyn and Tommy, remember that we are just a phone call away.##imported-begin##Clyde and Eleanor Moore##imported-end##

Cherylyn, Tommy and families, you are in my thoughts and prayers. I am so glad your mom and I had kept in touch since I moved. We had only seen each other a few times since then, but I have enjoyed the phone calls we have had. I am sorry I couldn't make it to the memorial service. Your mom was a great person and a good friend. I will really miss her and our phone calls.##imported-begin##Janet Chapman##imported-end##
