Kelly, John and family, Michael and wife and family, Al and Juanita and Shelley, Al Jr. Jason and Cindy and their families are deeply sorry for the John's death. We would have loved to have been there. Circumstances arose that made it impossible. We feel that after many years apart, that we were just getting to know one another. We're so glad to have met your family and also some of Uncle Bob's family. This is a time for all of us to reflect. Jack was good man and we believe that he is finally smiling down on all of us , saying "I made it". He's with the rest of his family. We are not on this earth very long so we all should make the most of everything. God Bless you all and Jack spoke of a family reunion someday. Perhaps it may come to past. We love you all and glad we are relatives let's stay in touch. May God give you all a quiet spirit..... Al, Juanita and family##imported-begin##Al and Juanita Turner##imported-end##

We will all miss Jack. I am so glad we have all connected and reconnected over the past few years. His stories and his documentary with Lisa will renew old memories and keep the Hunts, Halls, Turners, Smiths, Dillons, etc alive. His passion for knowledge and history, and his memory have created a legacy..rather, have continued one. You all have our love and prayers. Blessings from RI, Shelley and Tom##imported-begin##Shelley(Turner) and Tom Riley##imported-end##
