Jane Alberson Wootton

MAY 11, 1926 - OCT 25, 2010

On October 25, 2010, Jane A. Wootton of Annandale, VA, passed quietly at Heritage Hall Nursing Home in Leesburg, VA.

Jane was born on Turner County, GA, to Guy Otto Alberson and Lucille Fletcher. She came to Washington in 1945 to work at the Pentagon, and married returning Marine John J. Wootton of Detroit, MI. They were divorced in 1960, and she went onto a long career in the Hospitality Industry at the Marriott Twin Bridges and the Sheraton National hotels.

Jane was a lively and outgoing person and a caring and giving friend to all. Jane's family includes two sons, Joseph Wootton and Michael Wootton; daughter and son-in-law Diane and Rob Huyett; grandsons Justin Kearney and Michael Robert Wootton; great grandson Michael Ivan Wootton; as well as 7 surviving brothers and sisters and a large extended family in Georgia.

Services and burial will be at Live Oak Cemetery in Ashburn, GA at a later date.

For a few short years I felt as if I was a part of Jane's family. I was welcomed by her family in Georgia as if I was a part of them. Jane's sisters' and brothers' families are some of the most wonderful people I have ever met. Jane was an inspiration to all who knew her. My daughters, Lara and Brit, thought the world of her. Jane was such a loving and giving person especially to her children and grandchildren. My sympathy to Joe, Michael and Diane & Rob. May your memories soon bring laughter instead of tears.##imported-begin##Betty Schwoebel-Mills##imported-end##

Jane was a caring friend to me and grandma to my grandson, Michael Robert Wootton. She loved to see her lively great-grandson, Michael Ivan Wootton, Michael's son. I will miss our chats and occasional lunches together in Annandale. My deepest sympathy to Jane's children, Joe, Michael and to Dianne who took such good care of her mother.##imported-begin##Jean Aldridge##imported-end##
