Ida and family, it will be the little things that you will remember, the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter, and although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memories of these that help push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. With loving memories of my brother-in-law Delbert. Love and prayers to my sister and family. God bless everyone, Fannie##imported-begin##Fannie Ashby##imported-end##

Ida and family, Delbert had a great zest for life and he always seemed so enthusiastic in all his ways. There are so many fond memories. My neighbor, who worked with Delbert and Mike on a job, told me "in all of Northern Virginia no one was better at his job than Delbert, and his son (Mike) will be just like him".Ida, I can see Delbert now on your 50th Wedding Anniversary taking hold of your hand and proudly walking with you through your home at Lake Anna. Yes, Delbert was a great brother-in-law.May God rest his soul in peace.With deepest sympathy, Mary##imported-begin##Mary Harne##imported-end##
