I am sad to hear of this news. My thoughts and prayers go out to all the family and friends of Olive and I know there are lots of them. I started my career very young as a jr. volunteer at Heritage Hall and continued to become a CNA there Olive was there the whole time. I recently recieved my LPN degree and it is all thanks to patients and familys like Olive and hers. She was one of my many favorites there and i will always remember that laugh. Gone but never forgotten.##imported-begin##Jana Croson##imported-end##

My mother Nancy Solomon does not have computer access and asked me to convey her condolences. My aunt, Linda Horsman, was Olive's room mate for several years (until Linda passed away) and she was very close to Olive. My mother unfortunately did not hear of Olive's passing until she read it in the newspaper and she was very sorry she missed the service. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Ed Solomon - son of Nancy Solomon##imported-end##
