Laura B. Johnston

MAR 31, 1921 - DEC 17, 2010

Laura B. Johnston passed away at her residence at Falcons Landing, Potomac Falls VA on December 17, 2010.

Laura was born in Washoe Montana. She was married to her husband, Col. Andrew A. Johnston, for sixty three years prior to Andrew's death on December 12, 2010 .

Laura is survived by her daughter Kathleen A. Hopkins of Reston, VA, her two sons Robert A. Johnston of Anchorage AK and Michael D. Johnston of Oak Hill VA, her seven grandchildren Andrew and Mark Waskow, Zachary and Amanda Johnston, Robert, Ann and Eleanor Johnston, and by numerous great grand children.

Laura grew up in the state of Montana. After completing high school she moved to California where she attended nursing training at Sacramento Hospital. In 1946 Laura married Col. Andrew A. Johnston and spent the next eighteen years traveling from air force base to air force base and raising her family. In 1963 Laura and her family moved to Annandale, VA and shortly thereafter she began working at INOVA Fairfax hospital. Laura worked at Fairfax hospital for over forty years. She began on the labor and delivery (L@D) floor and was promoted to Management Coordinator of the L@D evening shift in 1976. She continued to work full time until 1988 at which time she elected to work part time as a PRN nurse. She continued to work in that capacity until she retired in 2005. Laura always said that working at Fairfax Hospital was the best years of her life.

Graveside services and interment will be held privately on February 4, 2011.

Aunt Laura-You have forever left an impression on our hearts. From our vantage point, you have always been seen as the 'fun' or free spirited one of your siblings that seemed to go out and do things your way. Your offspring of course know you best and may disagree, but for us, I never knew what seemingly juvenile thing might come out of your mouth that would turn Vi or my grandfather red faced...Pete could do that at some level with his 70+ year old (at the time) gruff sounding) F-bombs about...and you with your witty ability to insinuate or elude to something about the teenage/recently married 'lovebird' disposition...we were like 'did she really just say that but not actually say it but elude to it?'... classic. When we tell the stories of our ancestors to our children and children's children it won't simply be some uneventful name on a family tree and that she and Andy lived here and worked there, etc...we will surely also convey just how much we enjoyed our time with you and that if anything, it is okay to have a young mind and make some of the young ones flush red in the face once in a while. Melissa and I love you lots...##imported-begin##Vincent Boyanich##imported-end##

Kathi and family, I/we are so saddend to hear of Aunt Laura's passing. I will miss talking with her very much and hearing her voice. I loved the moments we were able to see each other over all the years, she was so full of life, & spunk (fiesty too) lol! and could walk circles around me! :0). Thinking of all of you and knowing how difficult this time is, Uncle Andy was a special man and knowing he is missed as much. Forever Aunt Laura will remain in my heart. To the Johnston Family: I am your neighbor and I am truly sorry for your loss, I would like to offer my deep condolences by sharing a scripture to bring your household comfort and peace , the scripture is found at Revelation 21:3,4 which reads: With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:"Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Again my condolences.##imported-begin##Christine Jackson##imported-end##
