The angels looked down from heaven one night.
They searched for miles afar,
And deep within the distance
They could see a shining star.
They knew that very instant
That the star was theirs to gain,
So they took you up to heaven,
Forever to remain.
Look down on us from heaven.
Keep us free from hurt and pain.
You'll always be within my heart
Until we meet again.
Missing you always...

To the family, thinking of you all as I remember my friend and co-worker on this day the day of his birth. It came back in a flood of tears as I sat at the computer this morning thinking of the many times we climbed those steps together every morning at TCS. As I entered the classroom this morning looking around at his plants and remembering how he loved them and took care of them. Family, Mom especially thanks for allowing us to meet the family that meant so very much to him. I would love to stay in touch.##imported-begin##Leola Marie Jordan##imported-end##

I am in the morning hush, I am in the graceful rush Of beautiful birds in circling flight, I am the starshine of the night. I am in the flowers that bloom, I am in a quiet room. Theresa, Andrew (TCS class of 2001) and I are profoundly saddened at the news of "Mr. Jimmys" death. We know we share our feelings of loss with all who knew him, at The Childrens School, and everywhere else , as he brought his kindness, humor, and love of life with him everywhere he went. We will miss him on our visits to the school, his bright smile always welcomed us, back when Andrew was in the Cranes, in Miss Frans class, and on our recent returns. I can hear his laughter even now. The Childrens School community was fortunate to have had him with us. His love for his children was a gift to everyone of them, and to the rest of us who knew him, as well. Goodbye Jimmy, we miss you. Dear Jimmy, today the school felt empty, sad, I felt so lonely. When I got to school this morning I turn my head to your classroom and you were not there. I kept on walking looking to the floor and my eyes begin to cry. I miss you so very much. Going to the playground is not the same. I know you will always be there in Spirit, But I miss our talks in the playground, while getting lunch. Today Jazmin and I were remembering the laughs, the talks we used to have with you. I thought of the happy times we had. I know that God needed another Angel to watch over me, and he called you. My big brother Jimmy Rest in Peace.....##imported-begin##Mireya Sanchez##imported-end##
