Chuck,Tia,Tyler,Cari& family, I am still in shock; I am a little jealous. I know you hearts are broken, but we all know Joannie is sitting around a campfire and praising God for taingher beautiful body and healing her once and for all. She is totally cancer-free and never has to have any more treatments again. All of the years of Scouts will never be forgotten and the girls she led will always havwe a special memory in their hearts just as we do, remembering the great times camping and sellign those dar GIRL SCOUT COOKIES. We love all of you and you will lbe in our prayers.##imported-begin##Sharon & Clif McGregor##imported-end##

I had the pleasure of working with Joannie for six years and the absolute honor of also calling her my friend. Joannie was an inspiration to any that came into contact with her. I loved seeing the pictures she proudly shared of her family and all the wonderful stories of their lives and you couldn't help but smile and feel the love and pride she had everytime she talked about her "grand-baby". This place will not be the same without her but I know she is now truly at peace. My heart and prayers go out to Chuck and the entire family.##imported-begin##Rebekah Long##imported-end##

Dear Chuck and family, I, too, have "known" Joan since our kids first went off to college back in '98. We've shared many ups and lately many downs. One thing for certain, she was always so proud of her family. We will miss her so....."In one of the stars I shall be livingIn one of them I shall be laughingAnd so it will be as if all the stars were laughing when you look at the sky at night." I never met Joannie in person, but she has been part of my life (as well as many others) in a College Moms group since 1998. We all shared our ups, downs and challenges via e-mail as we sent our children off to college. Joannie had such a sweet personality and such a positive outlook. She will be missed and is truly an angel watching over us all now..##imported-begin##Peg Smith##imported-end##

Even though Joannie and I never met in person we considered each other friends. We have been part of an online friends group for a very long time. Through this group we have shared good times and bad times. She and I also spent time talking about Jacksonville, as I lived there from 1984 to 1988. Her presence in our group will be deeply missed. My prayers are with the family as you all go through the stages of grief. Please let the prayers and good thoughts of all who knew her comfort you.##imported-begin##Jan Klein##imported-end##
