I am saddened beyond belief to hear of Kurt's passing. Please accept my deepest condolences and sympathies, as no one will really be able to understand the depth of this loss for everyone whose lives Kurt impacted in a very positive manner. Kurt was my overachieving plebe summer and plebe year roomie at the Boat School, and my CO "from afar" at DIA 0819. We had recently joked that it was hilarious that we ended up in the twilight of our careers in the same spot we started: roommates. Kurt was a man of honor with a staggering intellect and deep love of country. He was a mentor without peer, and I will miss him greatly. "Smooth Sailing on a Beam Reach, Shipmate." (Naples, Italy) Facebook page to let the rest of us know the sad news. I always remembered Kurt as a very intelligent student in high school who had one of the highest scores on a history test that was administered by Mrs. Virginia Delatte. It wasn't a test for the course but one of those national exams type of tests. We were all impressed. He appeared to be more aware of world events than the average high school student at that time. We also took English class together with Mr. Harter, a teacher we all would never forget. I think he also might have wrestled for the school. He was only in Naples for two years during our sophomore and junior years, but that was common for us military brats to move around so much. A few days before he left Naples, I ran into him at Festa Americana at Carney Park on July 3, 1982 where he signed my yearbook. I was sad that he did not get to stay for our senior year and had always wanted to know what happened to him. I am deeply saddened that I won't get that chance to see him at a high school reunion to chat with him or to connect with him on Facebook. My condolences to the family. God be with Kurt's family as they go through this difficult time and God be with Kurt.
