I'll always remember her as my cousin Nancy, that little red haired, freckled girl who seemed to be smiling every time I saw her. When she was living with her mom, dad, brother and sisters in the little house in Hillsboro to the houses near the Short Hill mountains above Lovettsville, when I'd see her in school at Lovettsville Elementary, through high school at Valley, to working at the Leesburg Safeway, she always had a smile for me. Sad when families seem to go separate ways and loose contact. I'll miss her.
