Jay And Ilu Sircar lit a candle in honor of Robert.

You were the first to befriend me as we moved into the Villages just about 2 years ago. Since then, you never failed to wave out a 'Hi' as I went out on my walks. You will always be in our hearts, and as always, when I step out of my building and look up at your usual place, I know you will be right there waving out at me. My friend, "You fell asleep without goodbye, But memories of you will never die."- Jay and Ilu Sircar

We Remember Them by Sylvan Kamens & Rabbi Jack Riemer
At the rising sun and at its going down; We remember them.
At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter; We remember them.
At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring; We remember them.
At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer; We remember them.
At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of the autumn; We remember them.
At the beginning of the year and when it ends; We remember them.
As long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as We remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength; We remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart; We remember them.
When we have decisions that are difficult to make; We remember them.
When we have joy we crave to share; We remember them.
When we have achievements that are based on theirs; We remember them.
For as long as we live, they too will live, for they are now a part of us as, We remember them.
