Debra Lynn Weary

MAR 21, 1964 - NOV 2, 2016

Debra Lynn Weary, 52, passed from this Earth on November 2, 2016 after a long fight with cancer. She was born in Woonsocket, Rhode Island on March 21, 1964 to Edmond Leduc and Evelyn (Godin) Leduc. She was visited by misfortune early in her life when she lost her father to heart disease at the age of 10. During her formative years, Debra loved teaching kids how to swim as a YMCA lifeguard and frequently worked at her mother's tuxedo business on the weekends. She also attended the University of Rhode Island earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science.

Her first job after school was with KPMG Consulting at Newport, Rhode Island where she met her future husband, Don. On November 10, 1990, they were married at the historic United Congregational Church, built in 1857. Ultimately, they settled in Leesburg, Virginia and were blessed with twins, Austin and Emma, on May 30, 1997.

In addition to her career as a management consultant, she was a beach bum, as well as, a semi-professional shopper with a special interest in clothes, cars, and houses. However, what she will be most remembered for is her easy laugh, infectious smile and most importantly being a devoted mother and wife.

In November 2005, she was diagnosed with a Chordoma tumor at the base of her skull. Chordomas are a very rare, very slow growing type of bone cancer with a median survival of 6-7 years. Debra endured several debulking surgeries and two months of proton beam therapy. But this is not a sad story; it is a story of hope, faith, and good friends and family. For 11 years Debra tenaciously battled the tumor and yet she was endlessly positive and still found a way to always put others first.

She is survived by her husband, son, daughter, mother, and her pets Daisy, Sisgoe and Felix.

I remember all the times us girls would get ready at the Weary's house. She would sit at the kitchen table waiting to greet us on our way out. With a warm smile she would tell us how beautiful we all looked. What a blessing it has been growing up with her daughter. She was such a kind soul and she will be truly missed!

Don - I was saddened to hear of your wife's passing....reading the tribute and looking at the pictures posted, she was truly beautiful inside and out. I'm sure I would have liked knowing a fellow beach bum and semi-professional shopper! May all the happy times and memories bring you and your family comfort in the days ahead. Me and Mrs. Weary always used to talk about how much we loved animals, always wishing we could adopt them all. She was most definitely one of the most kind-hearted people I have ever met.
