I would have loved to send you a card but didn't have an address, so I will express my sorrow here. As former manager of Carver Center, I knew and loved Ruth for several years, such a dear and endearing lady of whom I thought so much. Despite anything and everything, she always had a smile on her face and added sparkle to the Center. I don't know of anyone who didn't love Ruth, she will be greatly missed on both sides of Carver by staff and other members. May you find solace in sweet memories of a life well lived. God bless, Carol Hough
