I met Russell in middle school. We became instant life long friends. He was the person that lit up the room and made you smile. Over the years we would run into each other in Leesburg and play catch up. He rarely called me by my first name, it was always "Mallory", how the heck are ya! My deepest sympathy to the family on your loss of your brother, uncle, friend. Russell will be greatly missed. Ellen Mallory

Leonard Logan lit a candle in honor of Russell.

Growing up with Russell and his family in Hamilton, VA, we had some great times and adventures as members of that small and close knit community. One of the fond memories I had of Russell during our times in Hamilton was Russell's singing ability. I could hear Russell singing way before I he actually appeared in view. I will always remember the times I had with Russell and his siblings while growing up in Hamilton. My prayers go out to Russell's family as they go through this time of bereavement.- Leonard Logan (Waldorf, MD)
