My sincere condolences to the Caulkins family. A longtime fixture in downtown Leesburg, Roger will be missed by all in the community knew him. A kind hearted gentleman always greeting you with a pleasant smile. In the store, a quiet presence offering to be helpful, doing so with patience and kindness. The greeting and smile never limited to the business, Roger offered both anytime you pasted him on the street. Roger's skills will be missed but most of all he will be missed as a friend.

I remember being sad about needing to sell my mom's treasures & losing all the memories that went with them. But Roger & Stanley made me so much more comfortable about it along with being extra professional. While the store isn't where it was the kindness continues on. Thanks to Roger. God bless the family

I send my heartfelt sympathy to all of Roger's family. Roger and Stanley were such a quality team in their jewelry store over all of these years. I had a wonderful visit with Stanley with my dad (John Marsh) while Stanley was rehabbing. We laughed and remembered life tidbits, dad and Stan shared Rotary memories and Stanley shared many special and fond memories of growing up in a family filled with faith and the importance of this in His and Roger's life. I know many are saddened for those of us who cared for this kind man. May Roger bask in the promises of heaven and the being in the presence of Our Lord. May God bless and comfort all.

I have known Roger most of my life. He was a quiet, gentle man with such a warm smile. He always hugged me and his face lite up whenever I walked into the store. I can't believe he is gone. He and Stanley were always quite the pair. I will miss him....

I was sorry to learn about the passing of Roger. I first met him at the jewelry store and, like Stanley, he was professional, nice and down to earth. Roger and Stanley's work ethic also were exemplary. Good people who have enriched our community. May Roger rest in the hand of the Lord. Please know clients and other locals truly care about the Caulkins. Michael McPolandAshburn, VA

We send our heartfelt sympathy and deepest sorrow to the Caulkins family on the loss of a true, kind gentleman, Roger. He made everyone feel like a friend and not a customer. We would talk about local events and how he an Stanley got started in Leesburg when it was a small town. Roger, together with his older brother Stanley, took pride in all they did and you never felt rushed or pressured at anytime you were in their store. Roger will certainly be remembered for his watch repair and jewelry work, but he will be remembered more for his genuineness and kindness. With heartfelt sympathy,LTC(ret) and Mrs. Anthony V. Fasolo

Dear Stanley and family, I so sorry for your loss. I remember living in town and walking to the center of town and always stopping to see Roger and Stanley. We met them when we first moved here and started going to church at Leesburg Baptist (community). He was one of the kindest person I have met. He will be missed by all of his friends and the community that he served.Diane and Herb Melson

Dear Stanley, so sorry for the loss of your lovely brother Roger. He was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. Quiet, sooo intelligent, and steeped in nothing but kindness. You two have shaped Leesburg in soooo many ways. Just love you. Just love you both. Godspeed, Roger. I hear it's GOOD on the Other Side. Say hi to my Mama for me.

me with patience and forgave my many mistakes. Roger was so kind and soft spoken and will truly be missed. Stanley my heart goes out to you and the Caulkins family. Roger's kindness left an impression on me that will never be forgotten.

I am so saddened to learn of Roger's passing. I met Roger and Stanley in the 1990's through my good friend Betty Barnhouse. Betty's mother, Charlotte, worked for Stanley and Roger for many years. Visiting Caulkins Jewelry has always been a wonderful experience. Everyone at Caulkins has always treated customers as "friends". Roger was a master at fixing watches, a lost art today. Roger and Stanley have always been shining examples of how to live life and treat people. Roger will be missed, but I am glad to have known him. God bless Roger, Stanley and their family.
