Becky and Daniel, I had the pleasure of meeting Dan. He rented a limousine for Becky, me and our high school gals for our class reunion. He was funny, generous and so kind. I pray that all the wonderful memories he shared with you both are burned into your hearts and minds. His love carries on through you both. Love you always Becky, Lisa Gay

My dear little brother, will never forget the times growing up in Covington, hauling you and Roy to little league, you and Wesley stringing old wire from the phone company, building forts in the woods with the neighborhood kids. The time you barely made it home before the law showed up and when they asked "where's Roy?" you said "who's Roy?". We never laughed so hard as when you were telling those stories, I will miss you.
