The Overman's posted:

We were very sad to learn of Mrs. Talarico's (Ann's) passing. She was an amazing lady full of class and grace and always brought peace and harmony to any situation. We love her dearly, will miss her and will always remember her smile, her kindness and the life stories she shared throughout the years. We know she is at peace now in Heaven with her husband, Mr. Talarico (Carl), and both of them will remain in our thoughts and prayers forever. Deepest Sympathy, The Overman's

Dear Terry and Family, Ruth and I are so saddened by the loss of your Mom, so soon after your Dad. Ruth was a childhood friend, living across the street. Ruth's Sister Marian Keithley, married Ann's stepbrother Tommy Jones a long time ago. Both have passed and now Ann. We have many fond memories, Ruth and Ann always laughed about the time they made fudge that didn't get hard when they were teenagers- the fudge never did get hard but they laughed about it forever and still are. Ruth also remembers Ann's Mom Clara Lee Jones making Celebub, the devil's brew, every Christmas and their having a small glass. Love You Terry.
