Louise Golder posted:

Hanna was a very special person. She was a person of character, and completely devoted to her family and friends. If you were Hanna's friend, you were her friend for life. Her greatest joy in life was her son. He was the jewel in her crown. She truly was a wonderful mother. She and Raphael worked hard all of their lives but they also enjoyed each and every moment. I will miss you, dear, sweet, Hanna. Each April 7th I will think of you and the call that will never come. Thank you for always remembering.
