Ruth was always a true lady while I was working with her and BK in making their decision to move to Falcons Landing. She loved her grandson! I know he's grown now but I vividly remember his visits with Ruth when he was a child and how she enjoyed sharing him with other residents. You could see the pride in her face! She always remembered that I had two grandsons and asked about them frequently. Ruth loved her family so much. May God grant you peace as you deal with the loss of a true matriarch in your family.
