May GOD wrap his arms around you Cheryl, Iris, mama Emily and family; and bring peace and comfort to you all.I met Aunt Sylvia through her sister (mama Emily Robinson), back in 1987. Sylvia was always nice and kind toward me. I truly appreciated her funny sense of humor. Rest east Aunt Sylvia - gone but not forgotten.Blessings,Sway

I remember being treated like family very early in my youth. Being welcome into her home as if it was my own and having the pleasure of being part of the village that build on her strength. I'll treasure those memories and hold her seeds close to my heart always. I am because We were!

I am missing my mom so much. I am only able to get through the pain of losing her in the flesh because I carry her strength and courage in my heart.

Sylvia was a very kind gentle soul. I remember her welcoming me and my kids into her home treating us like family which is how I thought of her. She will be forever loved and thought of in my heart. Take your rest Sylvia. God has brough his Angel home. My family send their prayers, love and condolence to Iris, Cheryl and the rest of the family. Love Reba Smith Boyd, James Smith Jr. and Catherine Smith (Poochie) 🥹❤️🙏
